

Name: _____

Date

T: gain clues from archaeological evidence

Hanging Bowl

I think that the bowl belonged to a  (choose one) because

---

---

I think that the bowl DIDN'T belong to a  (choose one) because

---

---

Silver spoons and bowls

I think that the silver belonged to a  (choose one) because

---

---

I think that the silver DIDN'T belong to a  (choose one) because

---

---

Name: _____

Shoulder clasps

I think that the clasps belonged to a  (choose one) because

---

---

I think that the clasps DIDN'T belong to a  (choose one) because

---

---

Purse

I think that the purse belonged to a  (choose one) because

---

---

I think that the purse DIDN'T belong to a  (choose one) because

---

---

Gold belt buckle

I think that the buckle belonged to a  (choose one) because

---

---

I think that the buckle DIDN'T belong to a  (choose one) because

---

---

Sceptre / Whetstone

I think that the sceptre belonged to a  (choose one) because

---

---

I think that the sceptre DIDN'T belong to a  (choose one) because

---

---

Name: _____

Helmet

I think that the helmet belonged to a soldier / king / monk (choose one) because

---

---

I think that the helmet DIDN'T belong to a soldier / king / monk (choose one) because

---

---

So, who was buried at Sutton Hoo?

The person buried at Sutton Hoo was almost definitely a soldier / king / monk because

---

The person buried at Sutton Hoo might have been a soldier / king / monk because

---

The person buried at Sutton Hoo was almost definitely not a soldier / king / monk because

---

What have we learnt about how useful archaeological evidence is?

The good thing about archaeological evidence is _____

---

The problem with archaeological evidence is _____

---

Some things we cannot learn from archaeological evidence are _____

---