

Comparing Census Data from Our School and St. John's

Introduction

Our school (name of school) is located in (location). Our address is St John's school is located in Fakenham, in Norfolk. While our school has only around 240 children attending it, St John's has 500 children. One other difference is that St' John's is Roman Catholic, whereas our school is Church of England.

Type of Home

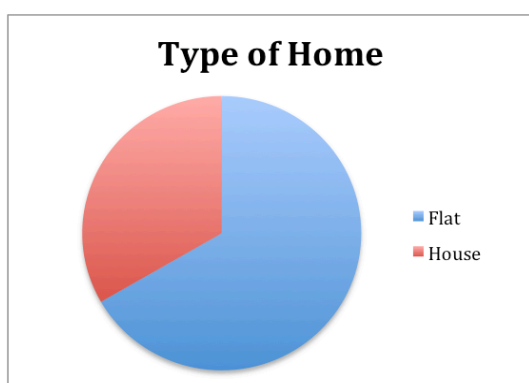

Fig. 1: Type of home for our school

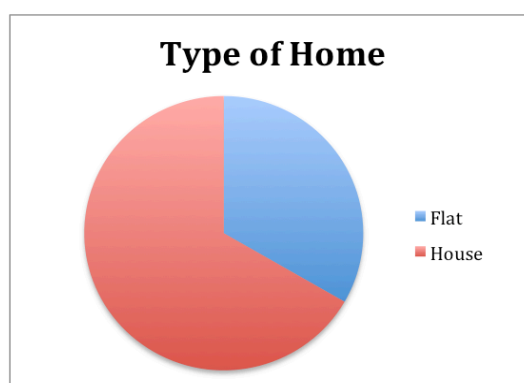

Fig. 2: Type of home for St John's

The pie charts show that most children in our school live in flats; in contrast most children at St John's live in houses. This is probably because St John's is in a rural (countryside) area, whereas our school is in an inner-city area where land is more expensive and there are fewer houses.