

Date

T: understand a legend

- 1) Why did the servant decide not to kill the boys?
- 2) Why are legends useful even though they are not always completely true?
- 3) Why did the wolf look after the boys?
- 4) Give one reason you think the servant was a good person. Explain your answer (use because).
- 5) Give one reason you think the servant was a bad person. Explain your answer (use because).
- 6) Give one reason you think Romulus was a good person. Explain your answer (use because).
- 7) Give one reason you think Romulus was a bad person. Explain your answer (use because).
- 8) Give one way that Rome would have been different if Remus had won?
- 9) When does the author start a new paragraph?
- 10) The author uses the word 'pity' in the first paragraph. What do you think 'pity' means?
- 11) Do you think the author believes every part of the story of Romulus and Remus? Explain your answer (use because).
- 12) What do you think Romans admired in this story?

Date

T: understand a legend

- 1) He took pity on / felt sorry for them (AF2)
- 2) They tell us what qualities people admired and the values they wished to pass on to future generations (AF2)
- 3) Her cubs / babies had just died (AF2)
- 4) He saved the boys (AF3)
- 5) He put them in a basket and sent them down the river which was dangerous (AF3)
- 6) He wanted to build a home for others who were homeless (AF3)
- 7) He killed his brother (AF3)
- 8) Would have had a different name / been in a different place (AF3)
- 9) When he moves on to another part of the story (AF4)
- 10) To feel sorry for (AF3 + AF5)
- 11) No because he explains that the story is a legend and legends are not historically accurate (AF6)
- 12) It meant their city was set up by a strong person / a winner
It is exciting and interesting (AF7)