

Stage 1, Page 2, Route B, not confusing m and n

The sound (m) is made by closing your lips, but the sound (n) comes from your nose.

Remember: Say the word aloud, then say each letter aloud as you write it
e.g. 'man, m ... a ... n'

For each line, trace over the first two words and then write two of your own.

A boy is a man when he grows up.

man man

"It's not your turn," said Lisa..

not not

If a team scores no goals, their score is nil.

nil nil

Lisa met her friend near her house.

met met

The map told Bart where to go.

map map

A nun is a lady who prays a lot.

nun nun

A pin is sharp so that it can stick to things.

pin pin

The car tried to ram the gate down.

ram ram

Now test yourself without looking at the words and check for yourself if you got them all right. Practice writing any words that you made mistakes on again.

Stage 1, Page 2, Route B, not confusing m and n

The sound (m) is made by closing your lips, but the sound (n) comes from your nose.

Remember: Say the word aloud, then say each letter aloud as you write it
e.g. 'man, m ... a ... n'

For each word, try to spell it without looking at it.

A boy is a when he grows up.

"It's your turn," said Lisa..

If a team scores no goals, their score is .

Lisa her friend near her house.

The told Bart where to go.

A is a lady who prays a lot.

A is sharp so that it can stick to things.

The car tried to the gate down.

Now check for yourself if you got them all right. Practice writing any words that you made mistakes on again.