

Stage 5, Page 6, Route A/B - (ort) as aught and ought

In some words the sound (ort) is made by the letters 'aught' or ought like those below.

Remember: Say the word aloud, then say each letter aloud as you write it
e.g. 'caught, c ... a ... u ... g ... h ... t'

For each line, trace over the first two words and then write two of your own.

Bart caught a fish.

caught caught

Lisa taught Bart how to add.

taught taught

The sea is fraught with danger.

fraught fraught

Bart bought Lisa a something to say sorry.

bought bought

Bart brought his fish home to cook.

brought brought

The number zero is also called nought.

nought nought

Too often Bart acts without thought.

thought thought

The word draught is a naughty red word that belongs to Bart because the letters aught make the sound (af).

An open window can let in a draught of cold air.

draught draught

Now test yourself without looking at the words and check for yourself if you got them all right. Practice writing any words that you made mistakes on again.

Stage 5, Page 6, Route A/B - (ort) as aught and ought

In some words the sound (ort) is made by the letters 'aught' or 'ought' like those below.

Remember: Say the word aloud, then say each letter aloud as you write it
e.g. 'caught, c ... a ... u ... g ... h ... t'

Try to spell each word without looking at it.

Bart _____ a fish.

Lisa _____ Bart how to add.

The sea is _____ with danger.

Bart _____ Lisa a something to say sorry.

Bart _____ his fish home to cook.

The numer zero is also called _____.

Too often Bart acts without _____.

An open window can let in a _____ of cold air.

Now check for yourself if you got them all right. Practice writing any words that you made mistakes on again.