

Stage 5, Page 7, Route A/B - (orl) as -all

In most one syllable words the sound (orl) is made with 'all' at the end of the word.

Remember: Say the word aloud, then say each letter aloud as you write it
e.g. 'all, a ... l ... l'

For each line, trace over the first two words and then write two of your own.

You should do your best all of the time.

all all

You can throw or kick a ball.

ball ball

Bart will call Lisa names.

call call

You can get hurt if you fall over.

fall fall

You do PE in the school hall.

hall hall

Some people are short; some people are tall.

tall tall

Bart would always walk on the wall.

wall wall

Some people are small; some people are big.

small small

The word shall is a naughty red word that belongs to Bart because it is a one syllable word that has the letters 'all' with the letter a making its short sound.

Shall we play?

shall shall

Now test yourself without looking at the words and check for yourself if you got them all right. Practice writing any words that you made mistakes on again.

Stage 5, Page 7, Route A/B - (orl) as -all

In most one syllable words the sound (orl) is made with 'all' at the end of the word.

Remember: Say the word aloud, then say each letter aloud as you write it
e.g. 'all, a ... l ... l'

Try to spell each word without looking at it.

You should do your best ____ of the time.

You can throw or kick a ____.

Bart will ____ Lisa names.

You can get hurt if you ____ over.

You do PE in the school ____.

Some people are short; some people are ____.

Bart would always walk on the ____.

Some people are ____; some people are big.

____ we play?

Now check for yourself if you got them all right. Practice writing any words that you made mistakes on again.