

Stage 8, Page 11, Route A/B - (ik) as -ic at the end of two syllable words

A syllable is a beat in a word. The sound (ik) is made by the letters ic when it comes at the end of a word of more than one syllable, like in the words below. In brackets next to each word is where the word splits in to syllables e.g. public (pub/lic).

Remember: Say the word aloud, then say each letter aloud as you write it e.g. 'public, p ... u ... b ... l ... i ... c'

For each line, trace over the first two words and then write two of your own.

If something is public (pub/lic), people can see it.

public public

Plastic (plas/tic) is used to make things.

plastic plastic

What is your history topic (top/ic) now?

topic topic

To panic (pan/ic) means to worry a lot.

panic panic

A comic (com/ic) is a book with cartoons.

comic comic

A picnic (pic/nic) is when you eat outside on the grass.

picnic picnic

A clinic (clin/ic) is like a hospital.

clinic clinic

Fabric (fab/ric) is another name for cloth.

fabric fabric

If something is toxic (tox/ic) it is a poison.

toxic toxic

Now test yourself without looking at the words and check for yourself if you got them all right. Practice writing any words that you made mistakes on again.

Stage 8, Page 11, Route A/B - (ik) as -ic at the end of two syllable words

A syllable is a beat in a word. The sound (ik) is made by the letters ic when it comes at the end of a word of more than one syllable, like in the words below. In brackets next to each word is where the word splits in to syllables e.g. public (pub/lic).

Remember: Say the word aloud, then say each letter aloud as you write it e.g. 'public, p ... u ... b ... l ... i ... c'

Try to spell each word without looking at it.

If something is _____, people can see it.

_____ is used to make things.

What is your history _____ now?

To _____ means to worry a lot.

A _____ is a book with cartoons.

A _____ is when you eat outside on the grass.

A _____ is like a hospital.

_____ is another name for cloth.

If something is _____ it is a poison.

Now check for yourself if you got them all right. Practice writing any words that you made mistakes on again.