

Date T: implying characters feelings through description

You need to write how you think each character is feeling.

When you think of an answer look up that word in a thesaurus and see if you can find a synonym that you think describes the character's feelings more accurately.

1. Mary smiled broadly, her eyes sparkled like diamonds and she couldn't resist punching the air.
 2. Sarah's eyes opened wide, she let out a gasp and ran towards her mum.
 3. Leon was breathing heavily, his eyes darted from one side to the other and he decided to run as quick as he could for the door.
 4. Laura sat on her own with her head down; she couldn't bring herself to look at anybody else.
 5. Joseph's dad's face went bright red, his brow became furrowed and his hands were actually trembling.
 6. David's bottom lip trembled, his eyes filled with tears and he started to whimper.
 7. Theresa got up to go, then she sat back down again; for the fifth time.
 8. Tony yawned, his eyelids felt as heavy as two bags of cement.
 9. Fatima jumped out of bed and ran downstairs to the post box as quick as a cheetah.
 10. Paul sat staring at the wall, he looked at the clock; two hours I have been waiting now he thought to himself.
- Describe a character to show how they are feeling.
 - Leave a blank line between each description and I will see if I can tell how the character is feeling when I mark your work.
 - Remember, you cannot say the emotion.