

Date

T: use there / their / they're correctly

There / their / they're are all homophones (words that sound the same but are spelt differently).

Their - belonging to them e.g. it was their house

They're - contraction of they are e.g. they're going to be late

There - use this when the other two don't fit the sentence e.g. the park is just over there

- 1) _____ are three main types of rock: igneous, metamorphic and sedimentary.
- 2) Rocks can be very different to each other; _____ also used for different things.
- 3) Igneous rocks are cooled down lava; this means _____ made by volcanoes.
- 4) Emails get to _____ destination much quicker than letters that are posted.
- 5) Attachments can be sent with emails; _____ useful for sending documents and photos.
- 6) All email address have the structure of name@website.com or _____ ending can be something else like .co.uk, .org or .ac.
- 7) The Romans were good at many things; _____ army was the best around.
- 8) _____ are two types of date used in Britain: BC (Before Christ) and AD (Anno Domini).
- 9) Immigrants are people who have moved into a country from another country; _____ sometimes forced to leave their home countries by war, famine or political problems.

Now make up your own sets of three sentences about rocks, emails or Romans with there, their or they're in each sentence